

Do I still need antibiotics before my dental procedure?

In the past, it was believed to be necessary for people with some heart conditions or people who have had joint replacements.

Good news! Recent evidence suggests most people no longer need to take antibiotics before dental procedures.

Check with your Physician or Dentist to be sure.